Sat, 16 Jan

Afternoon Hanoi street food tour:

We start the walking part of our tour around noon, first visiting the colorful local markets where we meet stall holders and talk about their food. Our walk then continues along both high streets and back streets exploring beaten corners in Hanoi Old Quarter that you never know by walking yourself, enjoying elegance Hanoi through tranquility French quarter with birds singing.

Our guide will introduce to you some of the authentic local food like Banh Cuon (steam rice pancake rolled with mince pork and mushroom), “Bun cha” (Rice Noodle with grilled pork – another Hanoi famous street food). Watch in awe as the skilled chefs demonstrate for you how this tasty dish is put together. Your expert English-speaking local guide will also give you an insight into the intricacies and traditions of Vietnamese food culture including details on ingredients and historical backgrounds of popular northern dishes.

Continuing into the atmospheric heart of the Old Quarter, we wander past street stalls and quiet residential lanes where you can observe local life that has changed little since Hanoi was founded over 1000 years ago.

Our next two snack stops are at outdoor barbeque stalls. We sit down with the Hanoi locals and sample various meat, vegetable and bread specialties that are flame-grilled over hot coals for extra flavor.

It's time for dessert as we venture down a small alley to join in the local tradition of feasting on fresh fruit served in a cup and smothered with crushed iced and condensed milk – this specialty is one not to be missed!

Your local guide will then take you to one of Hanoi's best kept secrets, a hidden café with stunning views over the picturesque Hoan Kiem Lake. Or, if coffee is not your style, a cold beer awaits!

Then, you will stay in a cyclo to be ridden around old quarter and Hoan Kiem Lake and see the water puppet show.

In the evening, you can walk to Ta Hien Street and enjoy fresh beer. Overnight in Hanoi.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Overnight in Hanoi.

Chieu Cave, known as the 1000 Step Cave, is situated in the southwest of Mai Chau town and considered one of the impressive tourist attractions in Mai Chau. The cave retains a length of over 150m and is divided into 2 floors. Unlike other Mai Chau caves, entrance of Chieu cave is about 10 - 15 meters wide and extends over 30m backward up the mountain, creating the airy space for tourists.

To reach Chieu Cave, tourists must go through 1200 stone steps. Beside the entrance, ancient Xa Pung - a kind of tree in ethnic people - majestically stands to shield the cave and facilitates tourists down the cave's floor. Inside the cave is relatively flat, cool and gorgeous. Setting foot in the cave, tourists will be firstly impressed by the pristine stalactite forests endlessly stretching and retaining its subtle shimmering. Stalactites appear everywhere inside with multi shapes, diverse colors and vivid appearance.

Looking down from above, rich and poetic Mai Chau town clearly emerges in sight. Tourists will be definitely surprised at the spectacular beauty of Mai Chau when viewed from Chieu Cave.

PHONG NHA – STOEN MASONS VILLAGE - MARBLE MOUNTAINS – HOI AN MEMORIES SHOW (optional) (B)

Fri, 22 Jan

Transfer from Phong Nha to Hoi An:

This morning you will depart Phong and drive to Hoi An.

On the way, visit the Non Nuoc stone mason's village, located at the foot of Marble Mountains. This craft village has a proud history covering more than 200 years. In 19th century, the stone carving village became a traditional professional of the villagers, and produce beautiful works of art.

Next we visit Marble Mountains - a cluster of five marble and limestone hills, that are named after the five elements: Kim (metal), Thuy (water), Moc (wood), Hoa (fire) and Tho (earth).

All of the mountains have cave entrances and numerous tunnels, and it is possible to climb to the summit of Mount Thuy. Several Buddhist sanctuaries can also be found within the mountains. There are lots of small "trails" to explore, caves to climb through, plenty of pagodas and statues to admire, spectacular photo opportunities, and excellent 360 degree views of the surrounding area.

Continue to Hoi An. The rest of the evening is yours.

OPTIONAL 19.30: In the evening, you can choose to watch the spectacular show: Ky Uc Hoi An - Memories Show. Be stunned by Vietnam's largest art show where 500 performers take over the outdoor stage in their traditional ao dai costumes and modern staging techniques.

(High: $35/person, VIP seat: $52/person)

Meals included: Breakfast

Overnight in Hoi An.

Full-Day My Son Sanctuary Heritage Tour by Vintage Vespa:

07.30 At your hotel, we meet our drivers, guide and classic vintage Piaggio Vespa. After a short briefing, then it's time to click on your helmet and start your adventure in the countryside on your classic Piaggio Vespa. Enjoy the unique sounds of this scooter that is so rich with its own history.

We journey through the countryside where the small hamlets are alive with the activities of the locals who are busy with their daily business. We stop and explore a local pottery village before making our way along a levee to visit an ancient Banyan tree. The Banyan tree is the heart of a bustling morning market that has been a part of daily life in the village for over 50 years. Enjoy a Vietnamese coffee and watch the bustling market activities. Please take a walk through the market and soak up the atmosphere.

We return to our Vespa and continue exploring the countryside before arriving at a very special market. The market is filled with little piglets. The piglets are raised in the homes of the villagers and are a key part of life in the village. Your guide will explain the history and purpose of this fascinating market.

Leaving the piglet market we continue our scenic trip to My Son via small village roads lined with local houses and picturesque paddy fields.

We arrive at My Son Sanctuary and are greeted by the sounds of the haunting Cham music filling the air. Here we stop to take in the vibrantly dressed dancers enjoying a traditional dance performance before starting your walking tour of the ancient ruins. The tour begins with a short ascent along a track bordered by jungle. As we reach the top, the ancient ruins appear. While you explore the area your guide will explain the history of the religious site which served as a burial site for the Cham monarchs many centuries ago.

After exploring My Son, we have lunch at local restaurant.

13.00 There is plenty to see, so it's time to get moving again. Our first stop is a bronze casting village. We stop at a house in the village to learn about bronze casting and its uses in Vietnam and why it is so important.

We board again our Vespa and begin our return journey to Hoi An through the countryside and its quaint villages and rice paddies where photo opportunities abound.

14.30 Upon returning back to Hoi An town – we say good-bye to our Vespa drivers and take a walking tour around visiting to the former merchants' homes – Hoi An old town. You will visit the Hoi An Museum, Ancient Houses, the Assembly Hall with Chinese influence, handicraft workshops and the Japanese Bridge. We will move on to the home of a local lantern craftsman. There, we will have a hands-on workshop to learn the traditional art of lantern making. You will bend the frame and select the cloth to build your own lantern from scratch and even take it home with
